

ContentAI - Marketing & Go-To-Market Strategy

Goal: Get Your First 100 Paying Customers in 90 Days

Week 1-2: Launch & Build Initial Traction

1. ProductHunt Launch (Day 1-3)

Why: 50,000+ makers see ProductHunt daily. Perfect for SaaS launches.

How:

1. Go to <https://producthunt.com>
2. Click "Ship" → Create your product page
3. Product name: "ContentAI - AI Marketing Copy Generator"
4. Tagline: "Generate high-converting marketing copy in 5 seconds"
5. Thumbnail: Create a clean image (use Canva.com, takes 5 mins)
6. Description: Focus on the problem you solve

`"Generating marketing copy takes hours. ContentAI does it in seconds.`

- `- Email campaigns`
- `- Social media posts`
- `- Google/Facebook ads`
- `- Landing page copy`

`Perfect for freelancers, agencies, and small business owners."`

7. Add your app URL + Twitter handle

8. Launch at 12:01 AM PT on Tuesday (best timing)

Promotion:

- Ask your 20 closest friends to upvote on launch day
- Post on Twitter: "Just launched on ProductHunt! Trying to build something useful for marketers. Any feedback welcome? [link]"

- Reply to every comment (this gets you upvotes)

Expected results: 100-500 signups, 3-10 paying customers

2. Twitter Launch (Day 2)

Why: Marketers live on Twitter. This is your audience.

Thread to post:

 Just launched ContentAI - I built this because I was spending 2 hours/day writ

What if you could generate high-converting copy in 5 seconds?

(Tweet 1 above)

Problem: Good copywriting takes time. Bad copy wastes money.

Solution: AI that actually writes like a human marketer.

I trained it on 1000+ high-converting emails, ads, social posts, and landing page

(Tweet 2: Show screenshot of the tool)

Features:

- ✓ Email campaigns
- ✓ Social media posts
- ✓ Google/Facebook ads
- ✓ Landing page copy
- ✓ Product descriptions

All in seconds. All high-converting.

(Tweet 3: Call to action)

If you write marketing copy, you need this.

Free to try: [your-url]

I'm giving first 50 signups 50% off first year.

Hit that link, try it, let me know what you think.

#AI #Marketing #SaaS #Startup

Post daily variations:

- Monday: "What nobody tells you about marketing copy..."
- Wednesday: "Email subject line tips from an AI marketer"
- Friday: "The 3 words that make emails convert better"

Expected results: 50-200 signups from Twitter

3. Email Your Network (Day 1)

Who: Everyone you know - friends, colleagues, former coworkers, LinkedIn connections

Subject: "I built something for marketers - would love your feedback"

Email:

Hey [Name],

I built ContentAI - an AI tool that generates marketing copy in seconds.

It's for anyone who writes marketing content:

- Freelancers
- Marketing agencies
- Small business owners
- Solopreneurs

Instead of spending 2 hours on an email campaign, you get it in 30 seconds.

It's free to try. No credit card needed.

[Your URL]

Would you mind trying it and telling me what you think? Honest feedback only.

Thanks!

[Your name]

Expected results: 50-100 signups

Week 3-4: Content Marketing

1. Write Blog Posts

These will rank on Google and drive long-term traffic.

Post ideas (write 1 post/week):

1. "5 AI Tools Every Marketing Director Should Know (2026)"
2. "Email Subject Lines: What ChatGPT Gets Wrong"
3. "How to Write Conversion-Focused Ad Copy (AI Guide)"
4. "The Future of Marketing: AI Copywriting"
5. "Copywriting Tips From an AI Trained on 10,000 High-Converting Emails"

Where to publish:

- Medium.com (biggest reach)
- Dev.to (if you mention the tech)
- LinkedIn (your network will see it)
- Your own blog (once you have one)

Format each post:

- Title (catchy, SEO-friendly)
- Introduction (problem)
- 3-5 main points with examples
- Conclusion + CTA to your tool
- "I built ContentAI to help solve this problem..."

Expected results: 100+ signups/month from blog

2. Engage in Marketing Communities

Where (with 50K+ members):

- r/marketing on Reddit
- r/startup on Reddit
- Facebook Groups: "Marketing Professionals", "Digital Marketers"

- Slack communities: Indie Hackers, BuildInPublic, etc.

Strategy:

- Don't spam your link
- Answer questions about copywriting
- Be genuinely helpful
- When relevant, mention you built a tool for this

Example comment:

"Great question! I struggled with this too.

The thing that helped me was testing multiple subject lines.
I actually built a tool that generates 10 variations instantly: [link]

But honestly, the best approach is mixing AI with human judgment."

Expected results: 30-50 signups/week

Week 2-4: Direct Outreach

1. Email Marketing Agencies

Who: Local marketing/advertising agencies (Google: "[Your City] Marketing Agency")

Subject: "Free ContentAI for your clients"

Email:

Hi [Agency Owner],

I launched ContentAI - an AI tool that generates marketing copy.

I thought it might be useful for your clients. Could save them hours.

Happy to give you 10 free accounts to try with your next client project.

[Your URL]

Would love your feedback.

Best,
[Your name]

Expected: 20-30% reply rate, 5-15 interested

2. Email SaaS Owners

Who: Companies with free/cheap tiers (Canva, Grammarly, etc. users)

Where to find emails: Their website footer, LinkedIn CEO

Subject: "Integration idea for your customers"

Email:

Hi [Name],

Your customers write marketing copy. I built ContentAI - a tool that does it in s

Could be great for your community.

I'd be happy to:

- Give your users a discount
- Partner on a blog post
- Create an integration

Would love to explore this.

Best,
[Your name]

Month 1-3: Sales & Growth

Pricing Strategy

Free Plan (Convert to Pro later):

- 5 generations/month
- 2 content types
- Basic support

Pro ($29/month):

- 100 generations/month
- All content types

- Email support
- 60% of users should convert here

Business ($79/month):

- Unlimited generations
- Priority support
- Advanced features
- 30% of users

Enterprise ($299+/month):

- API access
- Team seats
- Dedicated support
- 10% of users

Why these prices?

- Most SaaS tools underprice 2-3x
- People expect to pay for value
- You're saving marketers 5+ hours/week
- That's worth $100+ in value per week

Sales Tactics

1. Offer 30% off first month

- Removes friction for first-time buyers
- Gets them in the door
- They realize value, stay for months
- Do this for first 100 paying customers

2. Free trial for email list

- "7 days free, just enter your email"
- Build email list (most valuable asset)
- Follow up: "Here's what you can do..."

3. Case studies

- After someone gets a win, ask for a testimonial with screenshot
- Turn into a case study: "How [Name] generated 50 email variations in 5 minutes"

- Share on Twitter, blog, etc.

4. Referral bonus

- Give $50 credit for each paid referral
- Tell existing customers: "Know someone who writes marketing? Give them a referral link"
- Costs you $50, gets you a $29/month customer = ROI in 2 months

Target Metrics

Week	Signups	Paid	MRR	Goal
Week 1-2	200	3	$87	ProductHunt launch
Week 3-4	300	10	$290	Content + Twitter
Month 2	400	30	$870	Referrals + outreach
Month 3	500	60	$1,740	Blog traffic + word of mouth

Content Calendar (Post 3x/Week)

Twitter (Daily)

Monday: Copywriting tip Wednesday: AI insight Friday: Customer story Any day: Engagement (reply to other tweets)

LinkedIn (2x/Week)

Tuesday: "I learned..." post Thursday: Industry insight

Blog (1x/Week)

Friday: Long-form post (1,000+ words)

Paid Ads (If You Have Budget)

Google Ads ($500/month budget)

Keywords:

- "AI marketing copy generator"
- "Email copywriting tool"
- "Landing page copy generator"
- "Ad copy generator"

Expected: $2-5 per signup, 5-10 conversions/day

Facebook/Instagram Ads ($300/month budget)

Target: Marketing managers, freelancers, agency owners Message: "Generate marketing copy in 5 seconds" Expected: $1-3 per signup

ProductHunt Ads (If you launch there)

Expected: High conversion because audience is already interested

Customer Retention (Keep Them!)

Day 1: Welcome Email

"Welcome to ContentAI! Here's how to get started..."

Day 7: Check-in Email

"How's it going? Questions? Here's a tip to get more out of the tool..."

Day 30: Upgrade Offer

"You're getting value. Upgrade to Pro and get [benefit]"

Month 2: Win-back

"Haven't used ContentAI lately. Here's what's new..."

Month 3+: Premium Content

"Customer success story: How [Customer] used ContentAI to increase conversions 40%"

90-Day Checklist

- Week 1: Deploy on Vercel
 - Week 1: ProductHunt launch
 - Week 1: Twitter launch thread
 - Week 1: Email your network
 - Week 2: First blog post
 - Week 2: Direct outreach to 20 agencies
 - Week 3: Second blog post
 - Week 3: Reddit engagement
 - Week 4: Third blog post
 - Week 4: Case study from early customer
 - Month 2: 10 paying customers
 - Month 3: 50+ paying customers
 - Month 3: $1,500+ MRR

Key Insights

1. Your network is your first 100 customers - Reach out personally
 2. Content compounds - Blog posts drive traffic for months/years
 3. Free users → paid users - Give free tier, then upgrade for features
 4. Social proof wins - One customer win = testimonial = 10 new signups
 5. Price high - You're solving a $100/hour problem

Success Formula

(Twitter visibility) + (Blog traffic) + (Referrals) + (Word of mouth)
= Growth that compounds over time

Start with Twitter & ProductHunt this week. Add blog posts next week. Add paid ads if numbers look good at month 2.

You've got this. Launch this week. Get feedback. Iterate. Grow.

$1M in revenue is just 10,000 customers at $100/month.

Your first 10 customers will come from your personal network.

Go get them. 🚀
